The COVID19 Virus has impacted you and the community. We will continue to represent our clients during this difficult time. We want you to remain healthy and meet your obligations to the court.

AS OF NOW, the Orange County Courts are still open for Criminal, Juvenile, Mental Health and Dependency Cases. We will keep you informed if this changes.

IF YOU HAVE AN UPCOMING COURT DATE:

Please contact your attorney. We may be able to appear on your behalf with your consent. Contact our main line or the branch office of the Public Defenders where your case is assigned.

TRAFFIC CASES:

Have been put out one month. Contact the Orange County Court Official Website for information.

JUVENILE HALL VISITATION:

Public visits have been temporarily suspended at Juvenile Hall. As, Public Defenders, we still have access to our clients housed at the hall. You should be granted phone access to your child. If you have any concerns or emergency need for contact with your child, contact our Juvenile office:

657-251-6718

Toll free: 877-880-7788

MENTAL HEALTH HOLDS AND TREATMENT FACILITIES:

We are in contact with our designated hospitals as well as long term care facilities. Visitation has been restricted at many facilities for the health of the vulnerable residents. Please contact our Mental Health Unit if you have concerns or need emergency contact with someone in one of these facilities.

We continue to represent clients who seek release from civil commitments. We are working with the courts to ensure timely hearings and ensure continued access to our legal representation.

657-251-6414

Toll free 877-494-7788

DEPENDENCY CASES:

The Dependency Courts are still open. We will keep you informed if there are any changes. Contact our Dependency Unit if you are experiencing difficulty with visitation or contact with your child. We may be able to appear for you on your court date. Please contact your attorney.
